

WHAT PEOPLE SAY'S ABOUT TONY

Tony J Selimi
The See-Through Coach

Michele Scataglini, Senior Executive, EY

"I approached Tony J. Selimi to seek support to address the unbalances that over the years I had created in different areas of my life, including health, personal relations and career. Following my two hour initial consultation I knew Tony would be my coach and I instantly chose to embark on his Gold Coaching Package. Little I knew that one year down the line, by applying daily the teachings of his TJS Evolutionary method and reading his award-winning books A Path to Wisdom and #Loneliness, which I would create the dream elite life I always wanted but never gave myself permission to have. I feel empowered, healthy and very inspired on the trajectory for becoming a global purpose-driven leader. Tony's unique background, combining human cognition, emotional intelligence, and working as an executive in the corporate world is engineered into this powerful methodology that allowed me to gain full clarity in where I stand in my life. Having Tony as my coach helped me define and clarify the outcomes I wanted to achieve and design the necessary strategies and action steps that create sustainable results. Coaching with this man is an experience you want to give yourself as your greatest gift."

Timea Rozsahegyi, FD and Co-Founder of Vandercom

"If you are someone in need of clarity, want to take your business, relationships and family life to the next level, ready to grow mentally, emotionally, spiritually or financially, I whole heartedly recommend him as your trusted coach, teacher and healer. Tony's wealth of knowledge, clarity and support helped me transform most difficult times in my life into fuel that propels me on a trajectory to reach for my star and bring abundance in all of the eight key areas of life. He is a masterful healer, teacher, and perfect clean mirror humanity needs as we go through the next stages of our evolution. I thank you for all you do for me, my family, business and humanity."

Mercedes Leal, Love Coach and Mentor

"Being in the company of this lovely, sweet, and enormously advanced gentleman -and he is a true, gentle man -is one of the highlights of my life. His wisdom is far reaching, and yet comprehensible and 'do-able'. Whether you are in the healing and coaching field or not, we all need some sort of mentor. I doubt you will meet any who surpass this Macedonian genius, even though he has his own guides who, I suspect, also look up to him for his gifts are truly extraordinary. I expect services to be good, I feel I have to shout -and this Crystal Light Bed Therapy with Tony J. Selimi, is one of those hallowed, yelling occasions. I highly commend and recommend Tony, his coaching and this healing treatment."

Stuart Miller, Senior Executive

"I read two chapters of this amazing man award-winning book A Path to Wisdom and #Loneliness and I instantly made a decision to book a consultation with Tony as I knew he would be able to support me overcome my personal, professional and business challenges. Working with Tony shifted me to a whole new awareness, it is a journey that will impact your life, your business and who you are. Tony's focus is to identify your real life outcomes, what are the real blockers, stressors, and equips you with the tools required to face life fears and adversities head on. His approach enables you to resolve any issues that may be in your way so that you move forward feeling inspired, balanced and healthy. He truly sees through your being and is a great mirror we all need to achieve excellence. Thank you!

"I have had the most amazing few hours with Tony. He helps you to dig deep inside yourself with sincere, honest, no holding back conversation. I loved him for it. I'm so very grateful he came into my life and can't wait to do further work on myself with Tony holding my hand. I want to say best wishes but he already holds those in his heart and mind. If you are ready to elevate your life in all of the eight key areas of life, then having Tony as your coach will do exactly that."

Nyasha Gwatidzo, Social Entrepreneur

Tony's unique coaching and healing skills helped me gain full movement on my right arm after years of paralysis. Using his powerful TJS Evolutionary Methodology, he got me not only to understand the messages that my body was communicating to me through illness but also supported me through the changes I needed to do to create perfect health. He is also helping me with expanding my business vision and inspired me to think more, be more, and create more without fear taking over. Thank you for being extremely patient with me, for being my Healer, Life and Business Coach, and Mentor. You are a shining star who heals people with love and with your presence, wisdom, and light you radiate, you have a unique ability to illuminate the darkest parts of everyone you touch and work with.

Denis Taylor, Managing Director within Financial Services

"Tony's coaching methods, tools and style lead you quickly to fine-tuning your values, mission, purpose, and goals. Rather than coaching through a scripted or pre-programmed path, his wisdom directs you toward a practice of self-reflection and purposeful action. A personal journey like this is no easy ride. Be prepared to be confronted and challenged, be prepared to delve deeply into how you live, how you lead others and to answer questions other people in your life may never ask. In a time where "authentic leadership" has emerged as a corporate imperative or personal mantra, the time invested in reading or experiencing Tony's wisdom will yield significant returns personally, spiritually and professionally."

Dr Pietro Emanuele Garbelli

I had no idea who Tony was: I had not done a research on internet, I did not know he had written A Path to Wisdom or #Loneliness, I did not know what he could offer, but after meeting him I felt inspired to find out more, so I booked an initial consultation.

After the initial consultation I took some time to decide to embark in this what I can describe as most illuminous personal, professional and spiritual journey I have ever been; what I think is extraordinary was my behaviour after that: instead of searching on internet, gathering information about Tony, asking others for their opinion, checking testimonials, consulting a medium, like I would have usually done, I just took some time to feel what I wanted to do, to listen to what my instinct was telling me. I had no idea at that time that is one of the crucial points of Tony's teachings: I was obviously on the same wavelength.

I completed his three day intensive one to one "Vital Planning for Masterful Living" workshops and I walked away with so much more that I had bargained for. It's been only a few months since our initial meeting and intensive workshop, and the results are amazing: he helped me to find my own greatness, restore balance in many areas of my life, and we're now translating what most of us would call a Vision, or a Dream, into reality. If you are someone with an astronomical vision, mission and purpose in life and are seeking someone that can assist you breathe it into your reality, then I highly recommend booking a consultation with Tony.

Hans Schumann, Lawyer and Transformational Coach

"My journey with Tony has been quite different from that of his other clients, but equally successful. For a long time I kept wondering why I did not have those amazing light bulb moments that his other clients talked about. Yet, change happened in very subtle ways. When I looked back a year later, there was no denying that my life had been completely transformed. Most notably, I had overcome a serious chronic disease and regained an exhilarating excitement about my life and my future. At the time of writing I am about to leave the corporate world to build a new career, something I never even dared to think about in the past - and it feels great! So my advice to any new client is to hang in there. Tony knows his stuff!"

Shelley J Whitehead, Relationship, Dating and Bereavement Coach

"I chose to work with Tony J. Selimi early this year the moment we met as I believe every coach needs a coach. The experience has been profound. Tony has the ability to access my deep unconscious issues and by using his unique methods everything is transformed and reframed in a second. I have gained the clarity to achieve my potential in an unstoppable way. Tony guides me to be an even better coach and can help you be all you can be. Huge thanks and deepest gratitude to my wonderful coach, mentor, healer and light Brother Tony J. Selimi."

Joel Alexander Van der Molen, Managing Director, Vandercom

"I you are ready to face your lies, start a revolution in thinking, feeling, being and get on a breakthrough journey that will impact every area of your life, then Tony is the right coach for you to hire. Having been coached by Tony for over a year now, I know it is a journey we must all engage in to help us live our truths, expand our being and free our soul. He helped me gain the clarity I needed to implement the changes that I deep down feared.

Tony's TJS Evolutionary method is ground breaking, it inspired me to record the Audio Book of his award-winning book A Path to Wisdom and be the voice that carries his teaching to the hearts and minds of billions of people. He has helped me implement processes in my business that were required for the growth I wanted to create, improved our communication in the business and with our customers and as a result we have partnered with him up to film coaching documentaries of his clients journey's the first one being "Living My Illusion" with a mission to inspire millions of people globally to live their truth.

Thank you, Tony, for being the light that others can walk toward, for being the bridge from the shadows to the sunlight, from not knowing to knowing, and thank you for your commitment to the most important contribution to the progression of humanity and the planet."

Paul Miller, Entrepreneur & Founder of Move Play Explore

"I have had the pleasure to work with Tony on a one to one basis. Having exhausted what I thought to be every avenue in personal development I went to him out of desperation to succeed in business and in my career as a whole. What came out of it was far beyond my wildest expectations. Tony is so much more than a business coach. He is an incredible spiritual life coach. He has taken me on the most remarkable journey in my life and as a result I have been able to destroy my limiting beliefs and start tuning into my intuition to discover where my true passion lies. It is because of the trusting and open space that Tony creates in our sessions that I have been able to create my amazing business. I honestly do not know where I would be if I had not met Tony. One thing is for sure, I would not be where I am now."

Stephen Morallee, Artist and Creator of Deetell

"Tony's coaching and healing work has helped me to ground deeper and fly higher. His integration of love, craft, sensitivity and clarity is incredible. His healing work is deeply enlivening and laser like in its focus and impact. If you are after an expert that can elevate you to a whole new level, then Tony is your man."

Will Pike, PT and Entrepreneur

"Having Tony as my personal coach is by far the best investment I have ever made. He has enabled me to create so much balance in my life and has increased my happiness, self-belief and confidence exponentially. He has taught me so much about the spiritual world, healing, value alignment, and growing my business."

Daniel Browne, Performance coach and Best Selling Author

“Tony is a powerful coach, mentor and healer. He is the person I go to whenever I need business clarity or body-mind healing. Not only does he heal, he gets quickly to the psychological, emotional and spiritual root cause of your problems. He makes the miraculous seem ordinary, simply the best.”

Adam Frewer, Channel & Healer

“In my sessions with Tony it soon became obvious that I was not speaking with another "individual" as such. I felt no influencing ego or personal agenda around what I should and shouldn't do. I got massive clarity, but it felt almost like I was speaking to a higher version of "myself". He would reflect back to me exactly what I needed to hear and at the perfect time for me to both understand and utilise it.

This allowed me to own the changes and power within me, from a place of being asked and not being told. Now I live through my potential, making a massive impact on thousands of lives around me as a fellow coach and healer.

Without meeting Tony I suspect another 20 years or more would pass by for me to reach this place. Tony is a true magical being of light and the only person thus far that I have met and that I can acknowledge and call "a true teacher"

Mandy Flores, Marketing Director, Brazil

“To finally feel that the missing pieces of me have fit back into place is the most amazing feeling. What Tony brings is a gift beyond measure. I am in awe, inspired, and loved. The blessings received go deep into ones very soul. A million, million thank you is not nearly enough for what you have done for my career, my health, and relationship. I love you!”

David L., Craniosacral Therapist, New Zealand

“God where do I start, in meeting Tony I found my twin soul, my new family and confirmation of who I am. He is a man who has found his focus, clarity, purpose and his love for himself and humanity. His love for all is obvious; the experience he gives is a must, I embarked on his yearly integrated gold Coaching package after having healing and clarity coaching consultation with him at the Light Centre in Belgravia.

A year down the line, I had the clarity I was seeking, made a decision to leave UK, and I returned back to where my heart was. Tony helped me honour my inner voice, truth, and align my inner being. I continue to have monthly skype coaching sessions with him to keep me on track, focused, and inspired.”

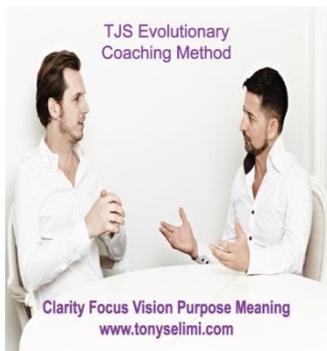

Elizabeth Thomas, Designer

“Living a fast paced life and burning the candle on both ends left me with an array of physical and emotional illness. I came to Tony through a mutual friend, I booked a consultation and I remember our first session at the Grosvenor Hotel very well as within minutes he got me to acknowledge the real issue. Not only is Tony one of the most genuine, loving and insightful people I have ever met but his wealth of experience shines through in each and every technique he uses, whether it's energy healing or coaching.

I feel energised, clear and uplifted after each of my sessions with him. My speaking abilities improved as a result of unblocking my stifled energy flow. The mark of a true professional is when their teachings and words not only stay in your mind for the rest of the day but for several months and years after. Tony is one of those people, a totem of strength and a joy to know. If you're in position to do so, hire him to help your family, friends and work colleagues and see how he magically transforms their thinking, being and loving.”

Daniel Deveney, CEO

“If you don't know, you don't look; If you don't look, you don't know; I looked, I now know. I went to see Tony as I felt frustrated with how my life was going, the same old. I felt everything was crumbling in front of me....our two hour initial consultation left me feeling empowered, in peace and with a knowing that I can do something to turn my life around.

“Tony, I can't thank you enough for enabling me to see the wonderful life and future ahead of me. Before my coaching sessions with you, I did not push myself as I had a negative belief that I wasn't good enough, I had not time, and I was not worthy. But the valuable exercises on values and working on my unconscious mind really helped to change that. I am able to see my future 3 months, 6 months from now and create a compelling future for myself beyond that. I now know how fantastic my life is and will continue to be! Thank you so much! I have found the real me. Part of me was missing. I feel complete. Full of love, vitality, and inspired into making positive shifts. This is a truly amazing experience. God bless you Tony!”

Phil Carvil Space Physiologist and Fitness Professional

“Tony has that unique combination of grounding and energy that empowers you to question and to act. Those words resonate with me. Previously, I spent a lot of time in my head overthinking, whether it be as a scientist, worrying about money or wandering about past or future relationships. I'd lost the joy of the present moment and my own self-worth. I'd succumb to my inner fear of being alone. With Tony, he guided me to look within, to question my mind beliefs and open myself up to seeing my self-worth. I'm still learning, but with his help I am working to a grander vision.

I've created a business for future space tourists providing pre-flight body development training, started towards a PhD on spaceflight countermeasures and begun to realise how amazing the world is when you stop thinking and start living. Rudi Cirigliano, Marketing Manager, Bosch UK

“The sun is shining, the weather is sweet and I'm feeling really good after an awesome initial consultation with Tony J Selimi last night, within no time we managed to reach my first personal breakthrough and dig into a root of cause of so many barriers that have affected me through my life, and it's all connected to so many things, that's only scratching the surface. I've also learnt that if we operate from a space of love and power, we create, if you give that power away in an attempt to please others and avoid judgement, you weaken your resolve and strengthen the opposite, moving away from your own resonance. I feel like a computer that's undergone an initial diagnostic system check and has identified some bad sectors. Repair? Y/N – the answer is obvious, but it takes action and a decision. Thanks Tony for all your insight and guidance, it's truly earned my trust. The love and honesty you put into your work is truly life changing and inspirational.”

Jim Schmitt, Germany

“And I know what was so wonderful about our three days together doing Vital Planning for Masterful Living: I've never felt such open and connected and willing to be balanced and in alignment with my true self as gay men in my entire life. “Tony is not only an amazing healer, he is also an inspiring and truly wonderful person. Through our sessions I have felt a deeper connection to the divine source of all life. This has helped me to trust more in my intuition and be guided to find greater meaning and purpose in my life. I noticed a massive shift in me happening the moment I started the energetics healing journey with Tony. I felt immense energy moving inside, as well as concepts and ideas, which were very new and mind blowing for me.

We had the Christmas and New Year holiday so I had time to really think if I want to do a year worth of coaching with him. It is a big commitment and quite scary to admit to myself, however, it is definitely what I was looking for a very long time. Already there are changes in my mind, positive and strong ones, whereas before it was impossible for me. Tony, thank you for that, and I am looking forward so much in working with you. It’s great to have met you in this life. Feel free to use this success story. Lots of love, Thank you!”

Chris E, Senior Executive, Zurich

“Words seem such a meagre way to try to express what the healing, coaching and his retreat has meant to me. It is what helped me see clearly, reconnect me to me, to my Creator, to the infinite wisdom of love available within me, love that I can freely give and receive from to others. Tony reconnected me to be able to receive love from others, he helped me see the beauty in me and in others. I have not felt this free for a very long time.”

Amanda Bruce, Los Angeles CA

I realised I have been afraid to live my truth because of the true power that I am, but in hiding this I am not being true to me or what the true me can bring to all those I meet. Tony is a world class healer, facilitator, teacher, guide and mentor. I have encountered many “students” and “teachers” on my journey these past 22 years and Tony is the first whose work I would endorse 100%. To quench your souls thirst read his award-winning books A Path to Wisdom and #Loneliness. Thank you”

Christine Hatfield, Boutique Hotel Owner, Florida

“I had just experienced the hardest and toughest year of my life. I received an email from Tony about his Body Mirroring System. I was coming to England in August and thought I would do a session. I then thought about how I was feeling and decided I needed something before this date. I contacted Tony and asked him if he travelled to do his healings. He did and so came to Florida for a week – he ended staying longer to help get me on track. It was one of the most amazing journey’s I have had in my life. Everyone in my life saw such a change in me.

When I met Tony I was in a very dark place mentally and physically. I was tired, constantly getting sick, exhausted and had lost the zest for living. I was not sure what I was expecting or what I was going to achieve. Tony began his healing sessions with me. I started to feel slight changes in after the first two sessions. The sessions then became more intense as Tony worked deeper into my chakras. I began to totally transform. I started feeling well again, more energetic and peaceful but most importantly I began to feel alive and vibrant. Each and every day I went through a new experience and reached a new level of health and feeling whole again. My health improved, old thoughts changed and I felt at peace with myself. I had certain ailments that disappeared. At times it was hard work but Tony pushed and persevered. Most importantly he took his healing very personal and was very intuitive about what was going on with me.

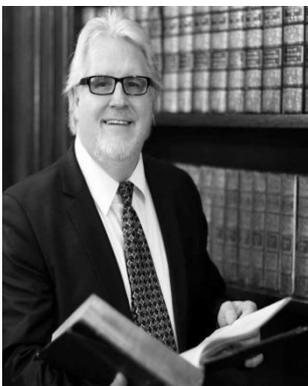

I cannot thank Tony enough for the healing he has done for me. He has given me hope and my life back. He has shown me a future that I am so excited about experiencing and fulfilling. As Tony would say, “Love and Light”. I am blessed to have him in my life. I found my twin soul, my new family and confirmation of who I am. Tony is a man who has found his purpose and passion. His love for all is obvious; the experience he gives is a must!”

“In the first five minutes of our Skype consultation I knew Tony was the coach I have been seeking for. Within a year he helped me overcome personal, financial, and business problems that were making me feel ill, impacted my self-esteem, and left me daily feeling drained. Tony is on the most amazing mission to create so much good in this world, he has done it with me and if you give yourself permission to work with Tony I know he will do it with you too. I flew to London to experience his hands of light and Vital Planning for Life three day intensive coaching work to help me develop my massage therapy business. I got back home with clarity, vital plan, and feeling inspired about life, my business and most of all my relationship with my husband and kids. Thank you for all you have done for me, I love you.”

Samantha Bernard, Massage Therapist, London

“In a city like London it is all too easy to become consumed by life’s everyday stresses, forget who you are and where you are going. Even working in healing myself I lost my path a little and was in need of some guidance, redirection and a little self-esteem. I came to Tony through a mutual friend, a meeting which was a divinely guided blessing. Not only is Tony one of the most genuine, loving and insightful people I have ever met but his wealth of experience shines through in each and every technique he uses, whether it’s energy healing or coaching.

I felt uplifted after each of my sessions and even my singing ability improved as a result of unblocking my stifled energy flow. The mark of a true professional is when their teachings and words not only stay in your mind for the rest of the day but for several months and years after. Tony is one of those people, a totem of strength and a joy to know.” (and if you’re really lucky once you complete your year of coaching you’ll get a fantastic basil and gin cocktail.”

Robert B, PT, Miami

“Many thanks for helping me heal my childhood wounds, set up my own business in Miami that I now love and enjoy growing it every day. You gave me so much, most of all I am now daily carrying with me some profound moments of intimate sharing I had with you on so many occasions including beach coaching on South Beach.

I am a better husband, father, and a PT. I owe that and so much more to Tony and his inspired teachings. I use the tools you taught me daily to deal with the day-to-day realities of my work and relationships -especially my relationship to myself. I feel inspired, trusting, and confident of a safer and rich journey.”

John G. Retail Manager, Dubai

"I had been meaning to get into meditation for quite some time but I just couldn't seem to master it properly which made me frustrated. The idea of switching off and creating 'stillness' really bugged me. Coupled with the fact that I found it so difficult anyway, I really was sceptical about giving it another shot. I stumbled across Tony J. Selimi's meditations on iTunes and started to give it a go. I was amazed at just how much focus and attention I could give to it bearing in mind that I have such a short attention span (probably why I always avoided meditation!). Doing Tony's meditations on a daily basis has really helped me calm my mind and think clearly. I am free to go about my day with a renewed energy and vigour."

Rebecca Miles, Senior Manager, London

"I started my personal transformation journey with Tony J. Selimi last year and have attended most of his workshop. This weekend's intensive Love2Love workshop blew me away, it was a real eye opener, very empowering, and was taken on an inner journey to truly once and for all learn simple steps towards loving myself and living my life.

Over the two days Tony delivered a content that helped me truly unblock parts of me that have been blocked for years. In addition he also brought together two guest speakers Michael Serwa and Marina Pearson talking about self-love, self-worthiness and their journeys as well as sharing their tools with us all to bring balance into our lives. I left feeling another dimension have been opened into my life; I got loads of knowledge and felt very inspired. I was surrounded with a group of men and women all on the same path, honest, sharing and caring individuals who all shared and participated into all the experiential exercises."

Marcello Yassin, Business Owner, Munich

With your unique integrated coaching style you helped me and the group to feel our hearts, you helped me found the most beautiful treasure, and that was inside of me, my love, my heart and all around us.

If you want an expert that can challenge you, nurture you, and shine light on your path, then book a clarity coaching session with him now and see how he can change your life too. I Love You and once again a big thank you. "

“My sessions with Tony brought home how we are shackled by belief systems learned from our past, which – if not addressed – can hamper our future development and growth. Working with Tony, I feel I am being given the tools and support to find a new path to freedom and enlightenment”

Alan and Cassie

“My colleague and I met with Tony following a chance meeting at the Mind, body and Spirit show. Tony came across as a really lovely guy with many fantastic ideas. So we arranged to meet him for a coffee and a chat which promptly turned into a coaching session. Not only was Tony’s insight and reflection on our business amazing but he helped us to see our business in a whole new light which has revolutionised our thinking whilst also freeing us up to make it bigger with many more possibilities for the future. We are eternally grateful to Tony for his kindness and would whole heartedly recommend him for business coaching.”

Cristina B, Rome, Italy

“Tony is a wonderful person with a unique gift to share. You will learn what the blocks are in your life, how to let go and be “in flow”. If you feel like your rushing around and don’t know where you’re going in life, his healing-coaching sessions are for you. Tony, I can’t thank you enough for enabling me to see the wonderful future ahead of me. Before my coaching sessions, I did not push myself as I had a negative belief that I wasn’t good enough. Since I started to work with Tony’s integrated coaching program, I got rid of back pain, bleeding teeth, digestive problems, and back and shoulder pain. Coaching gave me clarity on the goals I needed to focus on and healing helped me balance my body-mind. But the valuable exercises on values and working on my unconscious mind really helped to change that. I am able to see my life 3 months and even 5, 10, and 20 years from now and create a compelling future for myself beyond that. I now know how fantastic my life is and will continue to be! Thank you so much!”

Jennifer D London
